

OHSU-PSU School of Public Health
Master in Public Health Program
Proposal for Integrative Project

Introduction and purpose of the requirement: The Integrative Project serves as the culminating experience of your Master in Public Health training and the resulting written product must demonstrate your command of public health competencies and your ability to synthesize and integrate your competencies. Depending on your degree program, the written product may take various forms (consult the syllabus). This form documents your plan for completion of this requirement and the approved form will be archived with your academic records at the School of Public Health. Students are registered for the Integrative Project once signed approval of this form has been obtained. * Please type or print clearly. Please expand as needed.*

Student Name: _____

Student ID Number: _____

MPH Degree Program: _____

Total credits completed to date: _____

Academic term(s) of enrollment in the Practice Experience: _____

Foundational Competencies to be Addressed in the Integrative Project (See syllabus; a minimum of 3 are required and must include CEPH MPH Foundational Competency 6):

1. _____

2. _____

3. Foundational Competency 6. Discuss the means by which structural bias, social inequities and racism undermine health and create challenges to achieving health equity at organizational, community and societal levels.

Program Competencies to be Addressed in the Integrative Project (See syllabus; minimum of 3 required):

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Is your proposed Integrative Project founded in your Practice Experience? (circle) Yes No

If no, please describe the resource(s) that will form the basis of your scholarly activities:

Short Title of your Integrative Project: _____

Description of your project and the ultimate written product:

Faculty Advisor approval

Printed Name

Signature

Date

Program Integrative Project Coordinator approval

Printed Name

Signature

Date